ORGANS! ORGANS!!

A New Enterprise in Oakland!

CLARKE & COOK,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Celebrated Organs,

Are now engaged in the manufacture of Cabinet Organs, including all the recent improvements, and will exhibit their manufactures at the Mechanics' Institute Fair, to be held in San Francisco, commencing September 1st, 1875. Those desiring a first-class instrument are cordially invited to call and examine them before purchasing elsewhere. We are confident that we can produce an instrument that will please the most fastidious, and we are satisfied from comparisons we have made of the leading manufactories in the East that it would be to the advantage of purchasers to visit our factory before buying. We respectfully refer to the Editor of the Oakland Daily Evening Bulletin, and to the Pastor of the Congregational Church, Oakland, as to our responsibility and the excellence of the instruments we have built. We shall be pleased to have the Editor of the Bulletin call at our factory and examine our work, and we respectfully solicit the patronage of the citizens of Oakland and vicinity, as we intend to sell first-class instruments at prices to compare favorably with those of inferior quality. Shop on Clinton street, near Broadway, Oakland.

Factory, No. 11 Clinton st., between Broadway and Franklin st., Up Stairs,

OAKLAND.
